March 23, 1982

Dear Bill:

Thank you for your note of March 11. You and your colleagues have been sensitive to our need for compelling visual documentation of our claims of heavy Cuban involvement in the military buildup in Central America. On behalf of the other foreign affairs agencies participating in this coordinated public affairs initiative, I appreciate your continuing efforts to help us convince the skeptics.

Sincerely,
